Dr. Williams's Trust

The Trust includes a number of benefactions for which the founder, the Rev. Daniel Williams, D.D. (b. 1643, d. 1716), made provision in his will. The most important of these is now the Library, which has been greatly enlarged and developed since his time.

Besides the Library, the benefactions include grants of money to poor ministers, and to widows of ministers ; grants of books to ministers ; bursaries to undergraduate students for the Protestant Dissenting Ministry at the University of Glasgow ; post-graduate divinity scholarships for students for the Protestant Dissenting Ministry in approved Theological Colleges.

Provision is also made by the Trust for special Ministers in Wales to do missionary and evangelising work in aid of the weaker churches, or in districts where there is no regular ministry.

The Trustees also give bursaries and scholarships to be held at the Presbyterian College, Carmarthen. They contribute to the maintenance of the Dr. Williams' School for Girls (Secondary) at Dolgelley, North Wales. For information as to the institutions named in this paragraph, applications should be made to them locally, and not to the Secretary of the Trust.

GRANTS TO DISSENTING MINISTERS.—Sums ranging usually from £10 to £20 not in aid of inadequate salaries, but to meet special emergencies or to help in education of children. Retired ministers are not eligible.

Part postage is also paid in suitable cases on books borrowed from the Library by country readers who are nonconformist ministers. Further particulars may be obtained on application.

GRANTS TO WIDOWS OF MINISTERS.—These are made for the same purposes as those to ministers. The amount available for these grants is less than for those to ministers.

GRANTS OF BOOKS (called in the founder's will "Bibles and good practical books to be given to the poor").—These grants are made only in June of each year. Applications may be made at any time up to the middle of April in each year ; if any grant is made the books are sent out in the following July. The books given are intended to help ministers in their studies. They are new books, and are not given from the Library.

GLASGOW BURSARIES (Undergraduate) tenable at Glasgow University, up to the value of £100 per annum for 3 or 4 years.—Prospectus forwarded on application. Candidates must be of South Britain. Applications for Bursaries must be sent in not later than March 1st in each year.

DIVINITY SCHOLARSHIPS of the value of £150 per annum for 2 years tenable at any approved Theological College or University. Applications before the 1st of June in each year. Prospectus may be obtained on application to the Secretary.

For all the foregoing, inquiries must be made of the SECRETARY, Dr. Williams's Trust, who will supply further information as required.

Dr. Williams's Library

THE LIBRARY.—Primarily a Theological Library intended for the use of Ministers, Students, and other persons engaged in the study of Philosophy, Theology, Ecclesiastical History, the History of Religion and kindred subjects, it will also be found useful for the study of History, Sociology, the History of Language and Literature, and Classical Literature both Ancient and Modern.

The Library does NOT supply Fiction, or books on Mathematics, Music, Natural History, Physical Science, or Medicine; nor does it supply Elementary Text Books or Class Books.

Books are lent to persons over twenty-one years of age, duly introduced and guaranteed in accordance with the regulations laid down by the Trustees.

Copies of the Regulations and forms of application for admission may be had on application personally, or by post.

There is no subscription, but as only a limited sum of money is available each year for the upkeep of the Library, readers are invited to make a small yearly or half-yearly voluntary subscription for this purpose. They may also become 'Friends of Dr. Williams's Library,' the subscription to which is a minimum of £1 1s. 0d. a year and of which fuller particulars are given at the end of this BULLETIN.

Readers having books sent to them are required to pay carriage on receipt of the books.

The Library is open daily from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., except Saturday, when it closes at 1 p.m.

The Library is closed from the Thursday before Good Friday to the following Tuesday, inclusive; during the whole month of August; from Christmas Eve to New Year's Day, inclusive; and on Bank Holidays.

The Reading Room is also closed for the Quarterly Meetings of Trustees and for the annual meeting of the Friends of Dr. Williams's Library.

Payments in connexion with the Library should be made by stamps or Postal Orders for small amounts. Cheques should be made payable to DR. WILLIAMS'S TRUST.

All parcels and communications relating to the Library should be addressed to—

The LIBRARIAN, Dr. Williams's Library,
14, Gordon Square, London, W.C. 1.

NOTES AND NEWS

Trustees

Since the last issue of the BULLETIN, Lt.-Col. Chatfeild-Clarke and Mr. Benson Lawford have retired from the Trust. The Rev. Walter M. Long and Miss Joyce Pearson have been elected as Trustees to fill the vacancies so caused.

Bequests to the Library

A bequest is one of the most valuable ways in which help can be given to maintain the service of the Library in spite of rising costs which have made the Trust provision quite inadequate. It has come to light, however, that the form of words for bequests advertised for many years in the BULLETIN would, if employed, fail of its object. Money so left would indeed be spent on the Library, but under the Charity Commission Scheme of 1910 (under which the Library is administered) the Trust funds would be relieved of expenditure on the Library to an amount equal to the bequest: the net benefit to the Library would be nil.

To make sure that the Library shall really benefit in the way a legatee intends, care should be taken to see that the provision is so worded that it achieves its object.

Legal advice has been taken and a suitable form is set out below.

It is to be hoped that anyone who has taken steps to assist the Library in this way or who is thinking of doing so will pay special attention to the legal requirements of the case. The Library needs financial aid: it would be a pity if intended aid did not reach it.

FORM FOR BEQUESTS:—

> I GIVE and bequeath to the Trustees at my death of the charity known as Dr. Daniel Williams's Charity of Gordon Square in the County of London the sum of £ free of all duty and I declare that the receipt of any three of such Trustees shall be a sufficient discharge for the said legacy. I direct such Trustees to stand possessed of the said sum of £ upon trust to apply the same in their discretion in the purchase of books to be given by them to the said charity to be held as an addition to its library or to apply the same in assisting the maintenance of the said library and I DECLARE that the said sum of £ is not to merge in the funds of the said charity but is to be held upon a separate and independent charitable trust.

An alternate form of bequest for use where a testator is giving a capital sum which is to be retained as an endowment fund may be had on application to the Secretary.

University Hall Centenary

The building in Gordon Square, now the home of Dr. Williams's Library, was built as a hall of residence for students and was known as University Hall. The foundation stone was laid on July 20th, 1848. On July 8th, 1948, the centenary was commemorated by a gathering at the Library. Amongst those present were Colonel Sir Edward Le Breton and Mr. M. Philips Price, M.P., both descendants of founders of University Hall. The chairman of the Building Committee at the time was the Rev. Philip Le Breton who had been an Anglican clergyman in Jersey. Later having difficulties over the Trinity he came to London and opened a school at Westminster. He became a Trustee of Dr. Williams's Library, was a member of the Committee of the Unitarian Association, and took a prominent part in the founding of University Hall and of Bedford College, London. Mark Philips, who was the first M.P. for Manchester after the passing of the Reform Bill in 1832, laid the foundation stone of University Hall.

The management of University Hall was transferred to Manchester New College in 1882 and on the removal of that institution to Oxford in 1890 the building was bought by Dr. Williams's Trust as a home for the Library and the offices of the Trust.

Gifts to the Library

A considerable number of books has been presented to the Library during the year. Some have been duplicates of books already in the Library—especially welcome in the case of books much in demand; others were books not previously in the Library and are marked as donations in the list of accessions. Amongst recent gifts may be mentioned writings of J. H. Skrine, presented by Major Caillard; the third volume of Hughson's "London" (1806), presented by Miss I. G. Hobart-Hampden. This last volume is of particular interest for its account of Dr. Williams's Library in the early days of the last century.

A number of manuscript letters and other manuscript material have been added during the year. Two sermons by Dr. Joseph Priestley were presented by the family of the late Rev. Priestley Prime. One is in shorthand; the other, in longhand, is on the subject of war. The travel diaries of Robert Heywood have been presented by his grandson, Mr. R. H. Haslam, together with printed editions of some of the diaries prepared by Robert Heywood's daughter, Mrs. Mary Haslam.

FRIENDS OF DR. WILLIAMS'S LIBRARY

14, Gordon Square, London, W.C.1.

The primary aim of the FRIENDS OF DR. WILLIAMS'S LIBRARY is to improve the facilities for research students, for whose work the Library has much to offer. The Society has also done much to maintain the usefulness of the Library in other ways. Amongst other undertakings the Society hopes to build up a fund with which to print a much-needed catalogue of books added to the Library during the first half of this century.

Subscribers of £1 1s. 0d. and upwards are eligible for membership.

Further information will be gladly supplied on request sent to the Secretary at the Library.

Cheques should be made payable to 'FRIENDS OF DR. WILLIAMS'S LIBRARY.'
